

Wrote you after

this date!

57 E. 81st Street.

April 10th 1882

Dear Dr. Gray.

Jones's unwise article did not come under my observation, until it was already in print; but I supposed no harm would be done except to himself.

I have not seen or heard Dr. Frinze's pamphlet, but oppose its being issued, as a publication of the Society, suspecting its character. But yet I have sent him "Siemans' Investigations, as a guide. Both the Editors oppose its publication, but some of the too hasty younger members, raised a subscription and had it printed, I shall see that your recantation to King

is published, but at present
I am too feeble to attend to any thing - Yours & truly

Wm. H. Leggett.

per A. M. Leggett.